

"Treat fine lines and wrinkles, all in your lunch hour!"

Crystal-less Microdermabrasion System

A new approach to rejuvenating skin care

Crystal-less microdermabrasion is the newest, most innovative system in microdermabrasion technology. This unique system is specially engineered to deliver an exciting, new form of exfoliation using specially designed, graded attachments. There is no need for crystals as the attachments provide an exfoliating action with all the benefits including collagen stimulation and increased blood flow creating a smoother skin surface.

Microdermabrasion is suitable for

- Dull, oily or leathery skin
- Fine lines and crows feet
- Wrinkles and fine lines
- Sun damage
- Acne scars
- Clogged and enlarged pores
- Flaking, dry or oily skin

Frequently Asked Questions

Are there any side effects?

No. Crystal-less microdermabrasion gives the skin an overall fresh, healthy looking glow. It is a non-surgical, safe and effective "lunch hour" procedure.

Is it effective on all skin colours and types?

Yes and it is excellent for skin sensitive to chemical procedures.

Are there any contra indications?

No, although you may experience some redness directly after treatment. In addition to the face it can be successfully used on the neck, arms and back of hands.

What is the cost?

Microdermabrasion is an inexpensive process when compared to the costs of cosmetic surgery or the many creams you have tried that haven't produced the desired results. Treatments start at under $100.

How will I feel after treatment?

Tautness and a slight redness to the skin may occur which will usually subside within a few hours. Although uncommon, some clients may experience streaking of the skin from increased blood flow. This will fade within 24 hours generally.

What are the benefits?

You can treat the skin more frequently with increased health benefits such as collagen stimulation and increased blood flow, creating a smoother skin surface.

How do I arrange a consultation?

To arrange a FREE consultation (normally valued at $40) with one of our trained therapists or to book your exhilarating microdermabrasion session call:
